

Professional and Educational Background

Maurice Moses, LLP Behavioral Psychologist and Educational Consultant

- Mr. Moses is the president/CEO of Community Based Intervention Consultants, Inc. located at 541 Walbridge Drive, East Lansing MI 48823.
- CBIC, Inc. has been retained and contracted by over 180 school districts in Michigan, Ohio, and Wisconsin during the past 29 years. Mr. Moses specializes in the following areas: (1.) school wide initiatives in PBIS, MTSS, SEL, Brain-Compatible Instructional and Behavioral Strategies, Cognitive Coaching, Restorative Practices, Trauma-Informed Educator training, Bully Prevention Programs, training and workshops on recognizing and identifying students with suicidal and/or violent tendencies.
- Mr. Moses conducts brain-compatible functional behavior assessments and assists IEP teams to develop brain-compatible behavior support plans for students with the following challenges: (1) students with severe behavior, emotional, and psychiatric disorders, (2) students with Autism Spectrum Disorder, (3) students with traumatic brain injuries, (4) students with ADHD, Learning Disorders, and Oppositional Defiant Disorder, and (5) students with mild to severe cognitive impairments.
- Mr. Moses has been affiliated with the National Positive Behavioral Supports (PBS) Training Center (originated in University of Oregon and University of Southern Florida, and now connected with University of Connecticut) since 1988. He received over 60 days of training and mentorship by the 10 original professors who developed the foundational structures of PBIS. Mr. Moses was a national trainer in Positive Behavioral Intervention Support (PBIS) and a state coordinator in PBIS from 1990 to 2005.
- 1990-present Behavioral Psychologist, LLP and Education Consultant
Limited Licensed Psychologist (LLP) – State of Michigan. Independent Limited Licensed Psychologist consulting with schools and community mental health agencies.
- 1984-1990 Behavior Specialist at Clinton-Eaton-Ingham CMH. Lansing MI.
- 1984 Bachelors of Science in Psychology at Michigan State University.
- 1990 Masters of Clinical Psychology at Central Michigan University with extensive accredited and APA endorsed courses on-site and online post-graduation.

PROFESSIONAL REFERENCES

1. Brian Pearson, Superintendent, Gaylord Community Schools. 989-705-3080.
2. Crystal Grant, Former Attorney at Michigan Protection and Advocacy. Ms. Grant is currently a Law Professor at Duke University Law School, Durham, NC. Phone#: 919-613-7104. Email: crystal.grant@law.duke.edu.
3. Sue Pearson, Special Education Director Hartland Public Schools.
4. Kim Wooster, Special Education Director Fowlerville Public Schools.
5. Ted Kroll, Director of Alternative and Adult Education.
6. Andrea Rizor, Director of MI Protection and Advocacy. 517-487-1755.
7. Dennis Keck, Curriculum Director, Gaylord Community Schools. 989-705-3000.
8. Lyn Beekman, Federal Hearing Officer in Special Education. 517-290-2555.
9. Scott Moore, Ph.D. Superintendent of Oscoda Area Schools. 989-739-9121.
10. Richard Marshall, Instructional Curriculum Director, COPESD. 231-238-9394.
11. Steve Goodman, Ph.D. Project Director of MIBLSI/MTSS. 877-702-8600, ext.4027.
12. Jacki Anderson, Ph.D. National PBIS Leadership Team. Cal State University E. Bay 25800 Carlos Bee Blvd. Hayward, CA 94542. 510-885-3332.
13. Rick Albin, Ph.D. National PBIS Leadership Team. University of Oregon. 585 E. 13th Avenue, Eugene, Oregon, 97403. 541-346-2464.
14. Robert Horner, Ph.D. National PBIS Leadership Team. University of Oregon. 585 E. 13th Avenue, Eugene Oregon, 97403. 541-346-2462.
15. Janine Stichter, Ph.D. College of Education Dean's Office, University of Missouri. 118 Hill Hall, Columbia, MO 65211. 573-884-9157.
16. Gail Trudell, Special Education Supervisor, Jackson County ISD. 517-768-5200.
17. Bill Hofer, ASD Consultant, Jackson County ISD. 517-787-5590.

